

The APH Mission...

To extend Christ's unconditional love and hope to women released from correctional facilities. By supporting them through this transition, we not only encourage but assist them in becoming independent, contributing members of society. We hope to assist other groups throughout NM to develop equivalent programs, serving women transitioning from incarceration within their community.

A Peaceful Habitation Vision

To love and mentor participants in Christian principles that will assist them in the transition from incarceration to their families and communities throughout New Mexico.

APH Enlightens with the Word of God

APH Empowers with workshops and resources to grow spiritually, physically and emotionally;

APH Encourages daily with unconditional love, support and guidance.

A Peaceful Habitation
Home & Aftercare Ministry
PO Box 53516
Albuquerque, NM 87153

A Peaceful Habitation

Reaching Up and Reaching Back...

The Facts...

1 in every 35 adults is under correctional control

In 2008 a total of 4,270,917 adult men and women were on probation and 828,169 were on parole or mandatory conditional release following a prison term.

In the same year NM corrections received 3,752 admissions to prison, 33.8% of which were parole violation returns.

NM Corrections Dept. and PEW Center

A Peaceful Habitation

Why Aftercare is Essential

Life after incarceration is not a simple path.

The choices and decisions that must be faced are daunting for those that lack a proper foundation.

Without God-centered aftercare the prospect for success is an insurmountable challenge for ex-offenders. Women released from prison must overcome difficult odds and many will fail to manage in society without the right tools and outlook. The church can have an active role in the growth of those women who find themselves with a new horizon, limited options, and not much in the way of a roadmap.

The principal goal of A Peaceful Habitation is to provide a safe and nurturing setting where real life decision making is guided by self-discipline through discipleship, and accountability is encouraged.

The groundwork for creating this structured support environment begins with a safe and secure place to live for the months that follow release. A home environment in a safe neighborhood, with accessibility to Church and Work, is the cornerstone upon which renewed lives might flourish.

How You Can Help

Volunteer Opportunities

Bring the program and participants into your daily prayer life

Become a Mentor

Work one on one with a resident as she completes the program

Become a Volunteer Team Member

Support household operations or

Become a Board Member

Help set administrative and financial policy

Participate on a Working Committee

Executive, Finance & Fund Raising, Program Support, Housing, Public relations

Your Financial Support

The success of the program depends upon your contribution of money, time & service

Contact Information:

Leticia Chavez-Paulette, Executive Director

www.apeacefulhabitation.org

Email: leticia@apeacefulhabitation.org

Telephone: 505.440.5937

Fax: 877.986.9227

The Program

A Peaceful Habitation is a Christian aftercare ministry; a non-profit organization created to help "bridge the gap" for incarcerated and recently released women who want to live transformed lives.

The program provides structured support and mentoring with educational content and bible study to help break patterns of self-defeating behavior.

Godly support and safe, small group housing opportunities provide the essential elements to build the program

